February 19, 2002 LR 6

have a...something that is on the ballot over which we have no control. But I'm afraid that the...the measure that we have in front of us is not that. I don't think that we probably get very much, despite what...what I've been listening to from Senator Schimek, in terms of...of control of gambling. And I'm not talking about the issues of economic development. I am just talking about the issue of gambling and how we best control it. And I hear what Senator Jones said about the land that's used, and I look at what happened in Iowa where, after a few years and...and a downturn in profits, they opened the casinos to 18-year-olds. This is something that I absolutely think that we cannot condone. And...and I...and I'm afraid that when we have something that puts so much of the decision making in the hands of individuals who...whose economic interest it is to make certain kinds of decisions, I don't...I don't think that's the way we want to go. I want to know how we get the most control, and that's what I'm...I'm listening for. And Senator Beutler seems to be the one that's talking a little bit about it, but he's talking about our...our lack of control in terms of the petitions. I haven't yet started to hear where we get control in terms of what we do. I just don't happen to think it...it is in what we have before us. And I hope that we begin to...to start hearing some alternatives that will give the elected individuals in this state the control over this issue, if we...if it is clear that we are going to move forward with something that I think is not a good for society. And I would yield the rest of my time to Senator Beutler, if he would like it.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Dwite Pedersen. Oh, I'm sorry, Senator Beutler, she yielded time to you. I'm sorry. You have roughly a minute and a half.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, thank you, I think I'll start at the beginning of my next time, since I have a little more to say than a minute and a half. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Dwite Pedersen.

SENATOR DW. PEDERSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature. I, basically, have some questions, or a question,
